Looks like some good evenings ahead!

Derrick Turner Competition

For the Derrick Turner Competition, the subjects are:

- I A Place I Love
- II Still Life - A Story With Objects

Members are entitled to enter one painting in each of the two categories. Entries will not be accepted from non-members or any member who has not paid their current subscription in full.

For more information on Derrick Turner, the competition, the general rules for SWAS competitions, and those specific to the Derrick Turner competition, please see the SWAS website at <http://www.southwalesartsociety.co.uk/page141.html> or just follow the drop-down menu item 'competitions'.

Subscriptions

Of course, the New Year also means that annual subscriptions are now due. The cost is, as for the last eight years now, £35. You can pay if you wish on Tuesday, or if you wish to pay by bank transfer, the details are as follows:

Account name:	South Wales Art Society
Account no:	00973222
Sort code:	30-91-63

Please don't forget to include your name as reference, so we know who has paid!

Membership

As you are probably aware, membership has not climbed back to the pre-lockdown level. Consequently, we need new members, or former members to return. If you know someone who may be interested in joining us, or someone whose membership has lapsed, please try and get them to come along. They would be most welcome.

Annual General Meeting

This will take place on March 21st.

Any proposals to be discussed at the Annual General Meeting must be in writing, seconded and sent to the Secretary at least seven days prior to that date.

A statement of accounts for the year 2022 will also be made available to all members in due course.

I look forward to seeing you all again on Tuesday.
